To the team at D.I.B Australia,

D.I.B came highly recommended by the Department of Education, as their preferred AV service provider. Their reliability, competence and impressive onsite collection of data and information made them an obvious choice for us.

Sam Garden was our Sales Consultant and the communication link between him, me and two other colleagues was fantastic. Your production team was able to slot us into a weekend transfer perfectly and everything was up and running perfectly on the Monday morning.

Given our successful experience I would be happy to recommend D.I.B to others.

Kind regards,
