We have used D.I.B for a number of installs over the years after becoming aware of their services through their informative newsletters. Their competitive pricing and excellent consultation have always been defining factors as to why we have chosen them time and time again. Compared to other AV companies we have dealt with, Sam Garden's sales consultation has been outstanding. And most of the works performed have had few issues and gone seamlessly. The technicians, most recently, Matt and Andy are perfectly polite and cooperative. We hope to continue our great relationship with DIB into the future.
